

Let's talk about...

COLORS

A. Pronunciation

B. Target Vocabulary

Interruptions
1. Sorry to interrupt, but... Ex. Sorry to interrupt but I think we should consider other options.	Sorry to interrupt + but
2. Can I just add something?	Interrupting to add another piece of information
3. Can I throw my two cents in?	Interrupting to share an opinion
4. Sorry, go ahead. OR Sorry, you were saying...	after accidentally interrupting someone
5. You didn't let me finish.	after being interrupted

Idiomatic Expressions
1. feeling blue	sad or depressed	He is feeling blue because his girlfriend just left him.
2. green with envy	wishing very much that you had what someone else has	Her Gucci bag makes me green with envy .
3. white lie	a harmless lie	She told a white lie when she said that the boy was cute.
4. black sheep	A family member who is considered a disgrace	Ken is the black sheep of the family.
5. born with a silver spoon (in one's mouth)	born into a rich or influential family	My boyfriend is born with a silver spoon in his mouth . He said he doesn't need a job.