III. Conversation Practice

Practice the conversation with your teacher by doing a role play.

Steve: Hi, Stan, how was your weekend?

Stan: It was good. How about yours? Did you do anything fun?

Steve: I went to see my parents down in Florida.

Stan: That's nice. Where in Florida do they live?

Steve: They live in Boca Raton.

Stan: My parents live in Florida, too. They're in Delray Beach. How was the weather?

Steve: It was so hot. Every day it was over 95 degrees.

Stan: It gets really hot there in the summer. I only try to go down during wintertime.

Steve: Did you grow up in Florida?

Stan: No, I was born in Seattle, but grew up in Philadelphia. My parents moved to Florida three years ago. What about you?

Steve: I was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. I lived there most of my life. I have a twin brother who moved to Hawaii.

Stan: You have a twin brother? Do you look alike?

Steve: No, we're fraternal twins. We don't look anything alike.

Stan: He's lucky to live in Hawaii. Do you visit him often? Which island is he on?

Steve: I try to get over there once a year. He lives in Oahu. It's beautiful there.

Stan: I've been there only once. I want to go back. It was so relaxing.

Steve: Yes, it's paradise.
