

UNIT 57

Traveling

I. Express Yourself

II. Vocabulary

Match the word with its correct meaning.

outdoor

rent

jacuzzi

off

- a. used for a whirlpool bath and a recreational bathing tub or pool
- b. in absence from or suspension of regular work or service
- c. performed outdoors; not enclosed; having no roof
- d. money that is used to pay for the use of something ex. room, house etc.

III. Conversation Practice

Practice the conversation with your teacher by doing a role play.

Carol: Steve, will you be taking any vacation this summer?

Steve: Yes, I'm taking the last two weeks of August off. What about you?

Carol: I'm off next week. I'm going to Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Steve: It's a beautiful place. I went there last year for a few days. You must check out the spa, "10,000 Waves", while you're there.

Carol: Everyone keeps telling me that. It must be a great place. I already made a reservation.

Steve: It's terrific. They have outdoor Jacuzzis and the massages are out of this world.

Carol: I can't wait. Where will you go in August?

Steve: We rent a house up in Maine for two weeks. It is in Pemaquid, right on the water.

Carol: Do you take the whole family?

Steve: Yes, we all go up and we have friends up there, too. It's a very relaxing place and the lobster is unbelievable.

Carol: I love lobster. It must be great up there. They're famous for it.

Steve: Yes, they're huge and they take them off the boat and cook them right away so they're very fresh.

Carol: You're getting me hungry!

Steve: Yeah, me, too. Enjoy your vacation.

Carol: You as well.

Key Points

Out of this world.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Unbelievable. - Marvelous. - Superb. - Fantastic.
I can't wait.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Just can't wait. - I can hardly wait. - Really looking forward to it.
They're famous for it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - They're recognized for it. - They're renowned for it. - They're well-known for it.

IV. Role-play

Talk to your teacher about the best places to visit in Japan.

Part 2

I. Introduction

II. Discussion

 Exercise A

Would you travel to these places? Why or Why not?

	a place with nice beaches but crime rate is high
	a place with good but expensive restaurants
	a place with many historical sites
	a place with a lot of animals in the metropolis
	a place with poor internet signal

 Exercise B

What would be the best solution for this situation?

littering tourists

animal cruelty

declining tourism
of a country

 Exercise C

Role-play

1. You are planning to take a trip to the Philippines. You need to find out about flight availability, cost and other information related to your travel. Phone and speak to an airline staff.

2. You work for a company in Tokyo that specializes in sightseeing tours. Help a customer to decide which tour is the best for him. Suggest 3 best places to visit in one day and introduce one good restaurant that the customer can try for dinner.

