

FAKE NEWS

“Deception may drive the creation of fake news; gullibility helps create a market for it.”

Callum Borchers, journalist

EMO Philippines

ACTIVITIES

A. Fiction or Not

“North Korea Agrees to Open Its Doors to Christianity.”

“A royal wedding took place, and the entire world was transfixed as Prince Harry and Meghan Markle said, “I do”.”

“Prime Minister Shinzo Abe was re-elected to a third term as Liberal Democratic Party President on September 20th.”

B. Options

(a) Shocking News

*Describe a news that shocked you
You should say:*

- when and where you heard /watched it
- what was the news about
- who were involved

and explain why it was shocking to you

(b) Fake News

*Describe a news that was fake.
You should say:*

- what was all it all about
- what the source is
- what makes it false

and explain why people thought it was real